REPUBLICANISM VS. DEMOCRACY.

We publish to-day in full the declaration of principles made by the Democrats at Elkhorn, on Wednesday last week. It is our readers desire to see a display of supreme self-righteousness, of arrogance, and of a monstrous attempt to belie history; they should by all means read the Democratic platform. Yesterday we made comments on the first declaration in the platform, and to-day we call the attention of the readers of the Gazette to another declaration or plank. It reads as follows:

We hold that the gigantic evils which oppress and weigh down all the industrial and commercial interests of the country are evils which have been produced by Republican misrule, and magnified by Republican fraud and corruption, and that to the Democratic party ALONE can the people look for relief.

Yesterday we stated the causes which produced the present business stagnation. Among thoughtful men—men who pay any sort of attention to the study of finance or of our industrial system, there is no difference of opinion as to the first cause of the panic of 1873. It was the outgrowth of the war—a conflict for which the Democratic party, North and South, is solely responsible. Every business man whose trade is depressed, every mechanic who has suffered a reduction of wages, every workman whose labor has been taken from him, and every farmer who loses by the decline in the value of grain, is paying the cost of Democratic treason. This is the long and the short of it—first the war, then the inflation of prices, and then the inevitable result—a panic. Now let us look to the "Republican misrule, fraud, and corruption" with which the party is charged in the declaration quoted above.

There has never been a party which administered the affairs of the Government with greater fidelity and economy than the Republican party. Fortunately official documents come to our aid in making a contrast between an honest Republicanism and a dishonest and an extravagant Democracy. On this point we gave some facts yesterday, and we contribute more to-day, for the purpose of showing how extremely ridiculous are the statements of the Democrats of the First District. Faithfulness in office must be measured by the losses and defalcations in receiving and disbursing the public monies. The following will show the losses sustained by several administrations, per $1,000, including postoffice defalcations:

Jackson's last term (Dem.)	$11.73
Van Buren (Dem.)	25.38
Tyler (Whig)	10.51
Folsom (Dem.)	6.59
Fillmore (Whig)	9.63
Pierce (Dem.)	14.78
Buchanan (Dem.)	20.40
Lincoln (Rep.)	3.32
Jokanson (War Dem.)	2.34
Grant (Rep)—1st term	1.51
Grant 2d term	.79

This shows the striking difference between the two parties in managing the affairs of the Government. But this is not all. In the political annals of the world, the Republican party stands out as the greatest organization that any nation ever produced. It has been true to its measures, and matches in its career. It has a more brilliant record than any other political party of any age or any country.

It suppressed the most gigantic civil war the world had ever seen.

It restored the rebellious States to their former rights and privileges.

It gave the people the homestead law and free farms, while the Democratic party in Congress opposed it.

It gave to the nation a good and safe banking system and a sound currency.

It has paid over 700 millions of the national debt.

It has spanned the continent with iron bands, joining the Atlantic with the Pacific. This was a Republican measure, and was carried through Congress by the Republican party.

It abolished slavery against the will of the Democratic party.

It made freedom universal against the will of the Democratic party.

These are some of the grand achievements of the Republican party. Now let us see what is the record of the Democratic party for the last twenty years, and see if the people can look "to it alone for relief."

In the first place the Democratic party is responsible for all the evil and distressing results of the rebellion. The war could have been ended many months earlier had the Democratic party in Congress stood shoulder to shoulder with the Republicans, and thus thousands of lives and the millions of money saved but it would not, but refused to give the Government aid and comfort.

It opposed the homestead law.

It is guilty of the most appalling and startling election frauds ever known in any country. The frauds in New York in 1865 were the result of a systematic plan of gigantic proportions, boldly executed by a band of degraded desperadoes, with the approval of Samuel J. Tilden, then chairman of the State Democratic Committee, and the notorious Tweed. These frauds were so varied that they comprehended every known crime against the elective franchise. Look at this for instance: In one section of New York city which showed a population of 870, the returns gave 884 Democratic votes. Another precinct, which contained a population of 22,615, was made to give 43,000 Democratic majority! And thus things were conducted in New York city, under the direction of Tilden and other leaders. The gigantic robberies in New York City, committed by the Democratic officials in

The Outlook Gloomy Appeals of Physicians and Nurses—The Fever in Camp—Fearful Records.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Aug. 26.—The Howard Association has received the following dispatch:

GRENADA, Miss., Aug. 26, 12 m.—For heaven's sake send a few nurses. It is untrue that the material for disease is exhausted. The nurses are exhausted. Two of the most eminent physicians have just been taken down. Physicians are needed with nurses, but not without.

B. P. ANDERSON.
W. T. WALTHAM.

GRENADA, Miss., Aug. 26, 12:10 p. m.—Your telegram just received. Dr. Veazie is sick. One New Orleans nurse is sick, but walking about to-day. We need all kinds of nourishment for the sick. We need twenty-five nurses worse than anything else. The material is not exhausted. Nurses for Holy Springs have passed up. For God's sake send nurses if you can. Will pay $5 per day.

B. P. ANDERSON.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 26.—To-day the weather has been cloudy and gloomy in the extreme.

Among the dead is W. H. Halstead with Wheeler, Pickens & Co., and among the sick are the Sisters Dominica and Veronika, of the LaSalle Academy, and Fred Brennan, the city editor of the Appeal.

For the past 24 hours the Board of Health records show 100 new cases, and twenty-six interments.

Dr. Alex. Erskine was taken down to-day; also Fathers McGovern and Bokel, of St. Peter's Parish, and two more of the sisters at LaSalle Academy; W. W. White, clerk of the Peabody Hotel, and Joseph Russell, who has been actively at work among the sick of the Odd Fellows' fraternity.

The disease to-day has taken down many negroes, in some neighborhoods sick ones being found in every house.

There is great need for physicians and nurses, our own physicians having more than they can attend to, and many of the sick have to go for days without the attention of a nurse.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Aug. 26.—One hundred and forty new cases reported to-day and twenty-five interments. Among the deaths to-day is Miss Mary Lambkin. The weather is very unfavorable to-day, and accounts for the increase in the number of new cases.

WASHINGTON, August 26.—Collector Wheeler, of Arkansas, telegraphs Commissioner Raum, asking if he can remove the internal revenue office from Little Rock to Conway Arkansas, in case the yellow fever prevails there. The Commissioner grants the permission.

THE PRESIDENT.

President Hayes and Family on a Tour of the Northwest—The Programme of the Route.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—President Hayes and family leave Friday evening next on the Baltimore and Ohio road for Fremont, Ohio, where they will arrive Saturday afternoon. On Monday evening they will leave Fremont for Chicago, arriving there next morning. There the President will review the Fire Department. Wednesday he starts for St. Paul, arriving there early Thursday morning, and breakfasting with ex-Senator Ramsey. Then will follow a public reception. In the evening there will be a public reception. Immediately afterward the President leaves for Fargo.

Thence he goes to Bismarck, stopping at some of the great farms for a short time. Saturday he returns to Fargo, and Monday arrives at Minneapolis and holds a reception. He will arrive at Madison Tuesday morning, and keep on to Chicago, reaching there Wednesday morning. From there he will return to Washington.

TRADE.

Important Figures Concerning the Balance of Trade.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The Bureau of Statistics will to-morrow furnish the newspapers the statistics relating to the balance of trade, which were published in these dispatches a week since, showing the balance of trade in our favor for the last twelve months to have been over $26,100,000. This statement will include, as additional information, the DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

Declaration of Principles Made by the Democratic Party at Elkhorn, Wis., Wednesday, August 27, 1878.

We, the representatives of the Democratic party of the First Congressional District of the State of Wisconsin in convention assembled, charge upon the Republican party the wide-spread financial distress, the numerous and disastrous bankruptcies, and the general prostration of all great business enterprises which has so long prevailed all over the nation. This is the legitimate result of the class legislation, the wasteful and expensive administration of the general government, which, in all its departments has been in their hands for so many years; and the utterly exclusive drain made upon the resources of the whole industrial system of the country, by the excessive and unjust system of taxation which they inflicted upon the people.

We demand a general revision of the system of taxation, by which it shall be made much more simple, effective and just; and the enactment of a tariff law framed for revenue purposes only.

We demand that no material change be made in the volume of the currency, either directly or indirectly; thereby changing values and disturbing the relations between the debtor and creditor, except such increase as shall be the natural increase of the business growth of the country, and the increase of our gold and silver coinage.

We demand that the present standing of our paper currency, which is practically a voluntary resumption of specie payments, shall not be interfered with by a forced and violent resumption on the first of January, 1879, fraught with danger to the business interests of the country, in case such attempt at forced resumption should prove a failure, which we hold will be the inevitable result of the attempt.

We approve the act remonetizing silver, and desire that the measure be fully perfected and fairly carried into effect, until the silver dollar shall take its legitimate place along side of the gold dollar and the nation's treasury be restored to its full value, which shall form the currency of the entire people, and be receivable in payment for all debts and dues of every kind, public or private; and that there is no further increase in the bonded debt, and no further sale of United States bonds for the purchase of coin for resumption purposes, but that there be a gradual extinction of the public debt and rigid economy and a reduction in all the expenditures of the public service.

We denounce the great and damning fraud by which the choice of the people was thwarted, and men inducted into the highest offices in the nation, who were not elected there, the majority of the nation practically disfranchised, and a dangerous assault made on all free representative government; a gigantic fraud, which must never be forgotten or condoned until all its guilty participants shall be driven from power, and the voice of the nation shall once more rule.

We fully appreciate the action of the House of Representatives in ordering a thorough investigation of all the steps by which the great crime was perpetrated, and the will of the people overruled, to the end that all may know who the traitors and criminals were, and mark them for the future, and that history may hand their names down in the black catalogue of those who for personal ends betrayed their country.

We hold that the gigantic evils which oppress and weigh down all the industrial and commercial interests of the country are evils which have been produced by Republican misrule, and magnified by Republican fraud and corruption, and that to the Democratic party ALONE can the people look for relief.

We hold that the Democratic party stands pledged now, as in 1876, to a thorough and complete reform of all the abuses which afflict the nation, and that whenever and wherever they have been entrusted with the power to redeem these pledges, they have labored faithfully to do so; that the St. Louis platform of 1876, and Tilden's letter of acceptance, they have labored for true reform, and have accomplished much, though fettered by opposition in all the heads of departments, opposed by a Republican Senate, and treated to the Executive veto.

We congratulate the country that the Democratic principles of local self-government in the several States of the Union without the standing army, has finally forced itself upon the acceptance of the Republican party in power, who for twelve years of misrule, military power and anarchy in the States of the South, have finally conceded to that section of our common country the right to regulate its own affairs, and at once peace and quiet reigns.

DANCING WITH A PRINCE.

How Shoddy Aristocracy Ran Mad Over England's Future King.

From the Whitehall Review.

The original idea of the New Yorkers was to entertain the Prince at a grand banquet, but it was decided by the advisers of His Royal Highness that he was too young yet to respond to toasts, and the dinner was transformed into a ball. As soon as the welcome billings reached the women of America they one and all went mad. From the snug hostesses in Massachusetts to the log cabins in Ohio, arose one unanimous prayer—one, perhaps, not wholly supplicatory, and we may dare add somewhat defiant in tone: "Oh! to dance with him!" From the expression of a wish to the accomplishment thereof is generally but a step; namely, enough taken by the fair sex of the States, where woman rules supreme; but in this particular instance it was impossible that the hopes of all should reach fruition. The Prince could hardly be expected to dance with all the women of America, and many who (and this is history true) threw themselves on their knees before the members of the ball committee, and implored with tears just one turn of a waltz, had to be gently and cautiously shown the futility of their prayer. His Royal Highness has in the course much jealousy, hatred and heartburning both among the fair and among the sterner sex, but it is probable that he has never created such venomous animosity between human beings as when it was discovered that, although a Prince of royal blood, and once destined on some future day to be a consecrated king, it was not in his power to dance with the whole female population of the United States. All that he could do to please those unhappy and foolish virgins who could not get in—he with his natural kindness and thoughtfulness for others—did, wearing, for instance—to cite this example among many others—at the ball a pair of gloves four sizes too large for him, merely because he had received them anonymously a few hours before, accompanied by a passionate prayer penned by a female hand that he might wear them. How many young men in society in London would make a life sacrifice of personal comfort merely to please an anonymous admirer whom one may never hope to see, and who, as she avows she will not be pre-

VOORHEES.

The Hoosier Senator Hugging and Nursing His Rag Baby.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Aug. 26.—The Hon. D. W. Voorhees promulgated his soft money doctrine from the Democratic stand here this evening. He nursed his "rag baby" with apparent motherly affection. He claimed that the Republican party had deserted its own offspring. That it was not the first case of a neighbor's doorstep to be cared for. That it was the undoubted right of government to make money for the people, and if it had the right to make it at all, it was its duty to make all that was needed for the commerce of the country. The audience was a large one, composed of all kinds and classes of politics, including Republicans, curious to hear the great Hoosier orator on his newly adopted side of the financial question.

AN ELOPEMENT.

A Party at Oconomowoc and What Became of It.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 26.—It has been transpired that Miss Kitty Cogswell, of this city, daughter of Mrs. Celeste A. Cogswell, and sister of Mrs. Blanca Mitchell, of divorce fame, eloped from this city last Saturday with Mr. Alpheus Cutler, Jr., of Cincinnati, and the pair were married at Delaware, Ohio, Sunday evening. Mr. Cutler is a member of a wealthy Cincinnati family, and he and his sister together with Mr. Peck, of Delaware, Ohio, were visiting in the city last week, and, together with Miss Cogswell formed a party to Oconomowoc. They returned from there last Saturday noon, but Miss Cogswell, instead of going to her home, accompanied the party to Chicago, from where dispatches were sent to the Cogswell family in this city. They then continued their journey to Ohio, and the marriage occurred as stated.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

The Meeting of the Supreme Lodge of the World—The Prize Drill.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 26.—The Supreme Lodge of the World of the Knights of Pythias meets here to-morrow, and will continue in session over Wednesday. The State Grand Lodge will receive delegates to-morrow morning. In the afternoon a parade of all the drill corps present will be held. In Wednesday's prize drill a dozen or fifteen corps will participate. The city is profusely decorated with emblems of the Order, and the streets echo to-night with the music of the bands.

BEECHER IN CALIFORNIA.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—A San Francisco special says: Beecher's first lecture here has drawn down the wrath of Kearney's sand-lot followers. They had a monster outdoor meeting on Saturday night in Oakland, and the orators were loud in their denunciations of the Brooklyn divine. Their remarks were of the most violent character. Yesterday their speakers still forced in attacks on Beecher. His lecture tour of the Pacific coast will no doubt be a financial success.

HOTEL ROBBERY.

WATERTOWN, Wis., Aug. 26.—J. H. John of Jackson, Michigan, and Wm. E. Curry, of Rochester, New York, while stopping at the Exchange Hotel here last night, were robbed of $410. No clue to the thieves. Both occupied the same bed room, and the money was taken from under their pillows. Curry lost $55 and St. John $355. The victims have been here since Thursday introducing a coating for roofs.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

OCONOMOWOC, Wis., Aug. 26.—A man about 22 years of age attempted suicide on the street, Saturday afternoon. He succeeded in carving two horrible gashes in his throat, before the knife was taken from him. His wounds were dressed and he would-be suicide taken to Waukesha. His name was ascertained to be Thomas Carey, and the place of his nativity Chicago.

A Tried Remedy for Biliousness.

Those who suffer from disorder or irritation of the liver will never get the upper hand of the unruly organ so long as they use such irrational remedies as the pill, calomel and podophyllin. But from the tried and popular medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, they may expect relief with a certainty of obtaining it. The influence of the bitters upon the great biliary gland is direct, powerful and speedily felt. The relief afforded is not spasmodic, but complete and permanent. The sallowness of the skin, fevered appearance of the tongue, indigestion, constiveness, headache, nausea, pains through the right side and shoulder, in fact every accompaniment of the obstinate complaint are entirely and promptly removed by a course of this inestimable medicine, in behalf of which testimony is constantly emanating from every quarter and from all classes of society.
